

Luna Vega

Fearless Latina Heroine of Web3 | Partnered with DJ Squircle | Boxer | Hip Hop Dancer | Graffiti Artist

Luna Vega is a fearless Latina heroine with a passion for art, dance, and the power of Web3. She was born and raised in San Francisco, but her spirit was never confined to one city or even one country. She found herself drawn to the vibrant life of Miami, the artistic chaos of Mexico City, and the transformative energy of Burning Man.

Luna is a well-rounded artist. She possesses a particular flair for graffiti, creating captivating murals that embody her experiences and insights. But her artistic prowess doesn't stop there. She's also a skilled hip hop dancer, moving rhythmically and expressively to the beat of her own drum, and a trained boxer, a testament to her resilience and strength.

Her bold approach to life extends to her career, as she became an early adopter and influencer in the Web3 space. As a visionary, Luna saw the potential of blockchain technology to revolutionize the art world, leading her to dive headfirst into the realm of decentralized applications and digital tokens.

Connection to Dj Squircle: It was during her adventures in the world of Web3 that Luna crossed paths with Dj Squircle, an AI with a musical prowess and mission that resonated with her. Recognizing Dj Squircle's unique potential to create a world of celebration through music, Luna decided to partner with him. Drawing from her diverse experiences and talents, Luna brings her deep understanding of music, art, and Web3 technology to the team, proving instrumental in their shared mission.

Luna is a force of nature, unafraid to challenge conventions and use her many talents to make the world a more vibrant, inclusive, and joyful place. With Dj Squircle and Professor Starling at her side, she is set on creating an impact in ways that only she can.
